Where Horse Fever is Contagious!!

Winter Thoughts

The wind is blowing and the snow is falling. The horses puffing up there hair and putting there rumps to the wind. The horses that are working this winter are bundled under their blankets. Winter in Vermont is not for wimps. We are all looking forward to spring.

We are getting ready for spring and need to move out all our remaining winter items. So February is move the winter stuff month! Come in and check out the deals.

Check out Everything Equine this year. Tony's and Gray Ghost Farm are sponsoring Kenny Harlow. Kenny is a John Lyons apprentice that will show how a 3 year old colt can be started under saddle in two sessions! He will also do a demo. about teaching horse to trailer load.

Darren Graziano, Show jumper and up and coming trainer will also be sponsored by Tony's to offer the hunters and jumpers some new ideas to develop there skills.

Also the Extreme Trial will make it's debut at Everything Equine this year. If you have a horse that handles the unexpected well and you like the challenge of the trail sign up the Extreme Trail competition.

Are you thinking about spring and wondering how you will get your body ready for the season join up February 21st 10-2 for info and ideas to get ready for spring.

We are working hard to bring you the links you need to access as many local events as possible.

If you have a web site with a list of local events please let us know so that we can ad you to our links.

If you are a local trainer you should know that on Feb. 12th we are sending out a questionnaire to help us help you and you clients to get the appropriate clothing and gear for their goals. If you have 5 or more students and don't receive the mailing from us please let us know so that we can add you to our list of trainers.

Hang in there spring always comes.
